

San Francisco State University
Fall 2009

I-House: Education in Action!

Presents:

GİTMEK

A film by the celebrated director Hüseyin Karabey

{In English, Turkish, and Kurdish with English subtitles}

A poetic docudrama set in Turkey featuring a multicultural romance enduring the hardships of war.

In this unusual, poetic docudrama, Turkish actress Ayca Damgaci plays herself to explore her long-distance, multicultural love affair with Kurdish actor Hama Ali Khan.... It is from her paeans that the film takes its name, as she compares him to people and things that move her.... Though frightened by the imminent bombing of Iraq, Damgaci decides to undertake the harrowing journey to be with her Kurdish lover, moving from border crossing to border crossing—swimming against the tide of refugees fleeing the war.

Awards and Festivals:

- +Tribeca Film Festival, USA
- +Istanbul Film Festival, Turkey
- +Jerusalem Film Festival, Israel
- +Sarajevo Film Festival, Bosnia and Herzegovina
- +Tokyo International Film Festival, Japan
- +Antalya Golden Orange Film Festival, Turkey
- +Rotterdam Film Festival, the Netherlands

Introduction by: Ms. Nefise Kahraman
Graduate Student, Department of
Comparative and World Literature

Where: Hensill Hall – 206
When: November 05, 2009
Time: 4:10 – 6:10 p.m.

For information about the I-House organization and the featured events
send inquiries to: ihouse@sfsu.edu
Advising Professor: Dr. Mitra Ara