MEIS Speaker Series 2010

Prof. Nadine Sinno

The Middle East Institute, Georgia State University

"What We Talk about When We Talk about War:
War Narratives in Contemporary Arab Women's Writings"

Dr. Nadine Sinno will discuss war narratives as recalled by Arab women. She is the translator of Nazik Saba Yared's Canceled Memories, a novel that depicts a Lebanese family seeking to maintain love and trust for each other despite the destructive and corrupting effects of war. Dr. Sinno teaches Arabic and Comparative Literature at the Middle East Institute of Georgia State University.
