

2008 Urban Studies Senior Seminar

Class Presentations

Wednesday, April 30, 2008
4:10 - 6:55 p.m. in HSS 285

(4:10-4:30) Best management practices for citizen involvement task forces: Lessons for Western SoMa and San Francisco

Client: Western SoMa Citizens' Planning Task Force

Team: Seth, Derek, Nick

(4:30-4:50) Documentation of cultural contexts in SF's Mission District

Client: San Francisco Planning Department

Team: Jessica, Sara, Orrian

(4:50-5:10) Commercial gentrification prevention project

Client: Bay Area LISC

Team: Alan, Ginbar, Lily, Colin

(5:10-5:30) Comprehensive streetscape improvement plan in Central Market

Client: Central Community Benefit District

Team: Reynold, Ryan, Charmin, Christopher

Break

(5:45-6:05) Developing a comprehensive small business referral and resource database

Client: San Francisco Office of Economic and Workforce Development

Team: Jocelyn, Joel, Ryan

(6:05-6:25) How are North America's leading cities managing growth in their center cities?

Client: San Francisco Planning + Urban Research Association -- SPUR

Team: Maxwell, Anthony

Professor Ayse Pamuk

2008 Urban Studies Senior Seminar

Class Presentations

Monday, May 5, 2008
4:10 - 6:55 p.m. in BH 226

(4:10-4:30) Traffic Calming – best practices and test case design proposal.
Client: San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency
Team: Mike, Jennifer, Erol, and Paul

(4:30-4:50) Planning and design for safety along 24th Street in the Mission.
Client: Mission Economic Development Agency
Team: George, Andrew, and Yohannes

(4:50-5:10) Research and analysis pertaining to an update of the Recreation and Open Space Element of San Francisco's General Plan
Client: SF Recreation and Park and SF Planning Departments
Team: Lena, Cynthia, and Erik

(5:10-5:30) Using demographic analysis to document change in San Francisco neighborhoods
Client: SF Board of Supervisors, Office of Sophie Maxwell
Team: Rosalyn, Jamie, and Ian

Break

(5:45-6:05) Mission Cultural resources documentation
Client: SF Planning Department
Team: Ipeleng, Stavros, and Phil

(6:05-6:25) Field research on street vendors in the Mission
Client: Mission Economic Development Agency
Team: Luis, Apollo, Jijad

Professor Jasper Rubin

