

ATTENTION: POLITICAL SCIENCE STUDENTS

The Political Science Department is pleased to announce the 2009 John Randolph and Dora Haynes Fellowship Award in California Governance

This merit award is given to a Political Science graduate student who is committed to "improving governance and polity in California politics", and will be judged by the applicant's intellectual quality, academic performance and career aspirations.

Eligibility to apply:

1. Be a graduate student in Political Science
2. Submit a personal essay of two to three pages demonstrating interest in the improvement of the governance and polity of California
3. Submit information about academic performance

Two copies of all materials should be submitted to the Political Science Department office (HSS 263) by Friday, April 24, 2009.

Fellowship award is $1,000!!

The winner will be honored at the Political Science Department's Annual Graduation and Awards Ceremony on Tuesday, May 19, 2009.